About The Partnership

CHICAGO COOK
WORKFORCE PARTNERSHIP

A proud partner of the AmericanJobCenter network

Created in 2012, The Chicago Cook Workforce Partnership (The Partnership) is an umbrella organization operating the public workforce system in the City of Chicago and Cook County. The Partnership combines federal and philanthropic resources to broaden the reach and impact of workforce development services for both employers and job seekers.

As the largest workforce development system; in the nation, The Partnership has helped place more than 60,000 individuals in employment, collaborated with more than 2,000 employers and administers more than $200 million in federal and philanthropic funds. The Partnership's network of 53 community-based organizations, 10 American Job Centers, and sector-driven workforce centers serve 132 municipalities.

Focusing on the region's labor market, The Partnership provides training, business services, career coaching and data analysis, in the following high-growth and high-demand industries:

For more information about The Partnership, visit workforceboard.org call 312.603.0200, follow us on social media @ChiCookWorks, or Subscribe to In the Works, The Partnership's monthly eNewsletter.

Vision

Every person has the opportunity to build a career; every business has the talent to grow and compete in a global economy.

Mission

To create, promote, and effectively manage a network of workforce development organizations that:

- Designs innovative solutions to address business needs, and,
- Prepares individuals for, and connects them to, career opportunities
